Impact of the new immigration laws on overseas workers

In response to the government's new Statement of changes to the Immigration Rules which will be enforced in totality from 6 April 2011 the college has arranged for experts in business immigration to provide guidance to local employers who may be affected by these changes.

Employment of overseas workers has increased in the South East over the last four years so the event will also be exploring replacement strategies to support future staff recruitment policies.

Key Note Speaker: Adam Williams from DMH Stallard

DMH Stallard is a modern successful law firm providing legal services and planning consultancy advice to businesses, organisations and individuals. Based at the firm's London Office, Adam specialises in Employment Law including Business Immigration.

UK Border Agency

The UK Border Agency is responsible for securing the UK border and controlling migration in the UK, managing border control, enforcing immigration and customs regulations. Also responsible for considering applications for permission to enter or stay in the UK and for citizenship and asylum.
